CENTER for ORAL and PUBLIC HISTORY

The Center for Oral and Public History (COPH)—at California State University Fullerton (CSUF)—seeks to combine the strengths of oral history and public history in order to build better connections between CSUF and the communities—local, national, and global—to which it is tied.

- Our public history emphasis, as part of the History MA program, trains students in research methods of collecting oral histories, interpreting these histories, and presenting these important stories to the public.
- COPH's significant new and on-going student-based oral history projects focus on the El Toro Marine Corps Air Station, Emigration from Hitler's Europe to the Golden State, Southern California Food Culture and Visionaries, and the League of United Latin American Citizens

VOICE OF WITNESS

ILLUMINATING HUMAN RIGHTS CRISES THROUGH ORAL HISTORY

NEW! THE VOICE OF WITNESS
TEACHER'S GUIDE TO ORAL HISTORY

Voice of Witness is delighted to announce The Power of the Story: The Voice of Witness Teacher's Guide to Oral History, a free companion resource for teachers using titles in the Voice of Witness series. The Power of the Story includes:

- Flexible core curriculum-aligned lesson plans
- Excerpts from the Voice of Witness series
- Step-by-step instructions for creating oral history projects in the classroom and the community
- Teaching strategies for oral history

Voice of Witness is a book series that empowers those most closely affected by contemporary social injustice. Using oral history as a foundation, the series depicts human rights crises around the world through the stories of the men and women who experience them. Voice of Witness was founded by author Dave Eggers and physician/human rights scholar Lola Vollen, and is the nonprofit division of McSweeney's Books.

A Matter of Simple Justice

THE UNTOLD STORY OF BARBARA
HACKMAN FRANKLIN AND
A FEW GOOD WOMEN

By Lee Stout

*Afterword by Barbara
Hackman Franklin*

The 1970s and the Nixon Administration are remembered for many reasons but the advancement of women in government may not be one of them. Based on the "A Few Good Women" oral history project at Penn State University Libraries, A Matter of Simple Justice reveals how trailblazing women cracked the glass ceiling and opened up opportunities for generations to come.
