BAYLOR UNIVERSITY INSTITUTE FOR ORAL HISTORY

Making history since 1970

Our mission is to foster a deepening understanding of the past by collecting, preserving, and sharing the historically significant memories of individuals according to the highest ethical and professional standards, to work with scholars across disciplines to design and execute innovative research projects, to equip community groups in their oral history endeavors, and to mentor students in the interdisciplinary field of oral history.

Workshops on the Web – online assistance for newcomers to advanced oral historians:
- Introduction to Oral History
- Digital Oral History Workshop
- Teaching & Learning Oral History
- Transcribing Style Guide

Research Fellowships – annual grants for scholars whose research the BUJOH oral history collection can enhance

Community Oral History Grants – annual grants partnering with nonprofit groups in Texas to plan and carry out community oral history projects and share the results through public programming

Training & Consultation Services – workshops, field schools, classroom lectures, and interview and/or projects evaluations to encourage best practices for oral history

ORAL HISTORY TRANSCRIPTION
IS OUR BUSINESS

Helping Oral Historians, Archivists, Librarians, Historical Societies, Government Agencies, Businesses and Students transform their recorded words into print.

From beginning to end, we can help make your Oral History project a success!
We’d be glad to advise you on budgeting and grant proposals, even equipment and formats.

Working directly with your DIGITAL FILES, CDs, & AUDIO CASSETTES, our experienced staff will produce a quality transcript of your oral history interview, conference, seminar or meeting, customized to meet your needs and deadlines.
