Housing

Conference participants are responsible for making their own lodging and transportation reservations. For this year only, we have a new conference format. The conference will be centered at Concordia University in downtown Montreal, an international city with amazing oral and public history. Since we will not be at a conference hotel, we have agreements with a number of hotels around the area that will offer special conference rates for attendees. Please see our website for the list of hotels, and any specific reservation instructions. <http://www.oralhistory.org/local-hotels-montreal-2018/>.

**If you have mobility issues and need help getting to and from your hotel and the conference center, please email Faith Bagley at oha@oralhistory.org and the executive office will arrange shuttle transport.
