Sponsored Events

The following events are available for sponsorship:

Presidential Reception

Join OHA for their presidential reception at The Leonardo Museum, on Thursday, October 17. The reception will honor President Natalie Fousekis, as well as the recipients of the OHA's annual awards.

Keynote Lunch

This well-attended Friday event will feature Isabel Wilkerson discussing her award-winning book The Warmth of Other Suns: The Epic Story of America's Great Migration.

Plenary Sessions

There will be two plenaries: Hearing Indigenous Voices: The Challenges and Rewards of Cultivating Relationships with Utah's Native American Communities, and To Be Announced

Newcomers Breakfast

This popular event offers an opportunity for first-time attendees to meet OHA officers and long-time members and to network with each other.

Welcome/Diversity Reception

The reception marks the beginning of the 2019 Annual Meeting, a concurrent meeting of the Oral History Association and the Southwest Oral History Association.

International Reception

The International Reception is a good opportunity for international attendees to meet and network with each other.

Coffee Breaks

Coffee breaks attract a large crowd of meeting attendees. All three coffee breaks will be available to sponsor.

Workshops

Wednesday Pre-Conference Workshops:

An Introduction to Oral History – Jeff Corrigan

Radio Storytelling: Scripting and Editing and Telling Stories in Sound? – Molly Graham

Oral History for Genealogists, Part 1: "Tell Me About the Old Days, Grandma!" New Technologies and Enduring Best Practices for Capturing Your Family's Oral Histories – Sue Verhoef, Roger Bell, and Daniel Horowitz Garcia

Intro to Video: Videography and Basic Storage – Christa Whitney

Protect The Value Of Your Labor: Survival Skills for Freelancing in Oral History
– Liz Strong
